AEURA - 2023

AIIMS Kalyani Comprehensive Cadaveric USG guided Regional Anaesthesia CME & Workshop

16th September, 2023
Lecture Theater 1, Academic Building

Organised by:
Department of Anaesthesiology
in association with
Department of Anatomy

All India Institute of Medical Sciences
Kalyani, West Bengal

Ultrasonographic guidance has revolutionized the practice of regional anaesthesia, but needs skill as well as a thorough understanding of relevant anatomy.

This One-day CME and workshop is a comprehensive training of sonoanatomy and procedural USG guidance for regional anaesthesia post-graduate students and practitioners.

Volunteer-based live hands-on training, demonstration of anatomical specimens and training over cadavers are planned to improve the skills of USG-guided regional anaesthesia.

The registrations are limited to 50 to ensure maximum hands-on experience.
